530 MORE NEW VOTERS REGISTER THURSDAY

Swell the Total Number in Bucks County Since April 28th to 4,645

HIGHER THAN USUAL

Five hundred and thirty new voters registered with the traveling registrars Thursday to swell the total number of county voters registered since April 28, to 4,645.

Of the 530 registrations 419 are Republican, 89 Democrat, 18 No-party, and 4 Independents. This brings the over-all total of this year's registration to 3,399 Republicans, 979 Democrats, 201 No-Party, 65 Independent, and one Socialist.

Daily registrations are still exceeding last year's figures according to Chief Registrar Robert F. Detweiler, Silverdale, who adds that "We are registering on an average 30 new voters a day here at the office." Detweiler says most of the office increase occurred after the presidential conventions.

And if the present rate of registration both in the field and in the county office continues, a total of "at least" 7,000 voters will have been registered by the end of the current registration period. Last date of registration is Saturday, Sept. 13.

Detweiler has cautioned voters that if they move after Sept. 4, they will not be able to vote in the November election. The reason is that a voter may not vote in a district from which he has moved, nor can he vote before residing two months in the new district in which he lives.

In this area the traveling registrars will sit Monday at the Tullytown Fire House, Tullytown Borough, and Tuesday the registrars will sit at Newtown Ford, Inc.

COMMUNISTS ATTEMPT TO SMASH BOY SCOUTS

Analysis System Results In Weeding Out of Reds

NO INFILTRATION

Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, made the following statement today after Senator Pat McCarran's Senate sub-committee on internal security disclosed that Communists made efforts to infiltrate the Boy Scouts:

"In consideration of the fact that the Boy Scouts of America is dedicated to the training of youth in those qualities of character and good citizenship that will contribute to the enrichment and strengthening of our democracy, it is not surprising that Soviet Communism should consider it as one of their greatest menaces to winning support for their totalitarian ideology and overthrowing our democratic government. Of course, we are familiar with their attempt in the 1930's to 'smash the Boy Scouts.' They got nowhere.

"Also, we do not doubt their desire to confuse and destroy this typically American organization, if they could, through infiltration. Here again, however, they have had little success, as is evidenced by our continued growth in numbers and dedication to training youth to strengthen the democratic way of life.

"In 1949 we launched a three year Crusade under the slogan, 'Strengthen the Arm of Liberty.' We closed this campaign at the end of 1951 with not only great gains in our trained leadership, and hence in the quality of the program, but with a numerical increase of 723,193 boys and men, making our grand total membership at the end of the year 2,942,779.

"As of January 1, 1952, we launched a Three Year Program under the slogan, 'Forward on Liberty's Team' predicated on dedication to American ideals and the training of boys in these ideals. Here again, this program to strengthen America through the proper training of youth has met with a splendid response and we will close the year with a membership well in excess of three million. These figures are cited to

EXPECT TO SETTLE STRIKE SHORTLY

Operating Engineers Are Ordered Back to Work By Union Head

SEEKS AID OF COURT

MORRISVILLE, Aug. 16 — Settlement is expected over the weekend of the 15-week strike of Philadelphia operating engineers which halted construction at U. S. Steel's Fairless Works.

The operating engineers have been ordered back to work under an agreement made by William E. Maloney their national president, with the contractors.

But Roy J. Underwood, the president of the striking Philadelphia locals yesterday sought a court restraining order against the national president.

Judge Alan K. Grim, United States District Court ordered both Maloney and Underwood to sit down at a conference table and try to iron out their differences.

About 75% of the 9,500 A.F. of L. building tradesmen have been staying off their jobs at the steel plant site because of the employment by the contractors of crane and bulldozer operators who are members of the striking union.

Yesterday contractors had to give up an attempt to carry on limited field operations.

The Delaware River Coach Lines, Inc., also operate buses between Trenton and Burlington via Bristol. This line was recently purchased and it was said today that the line is still operating.

SCHOOLS WILL BE BELOW STANDARD FOR TEN YEARS

Heavy Enrollment in Lower Bucks County Given As The Cause

SOME ARE OUTMODED

Enrollment to Increase 10,100 by January First

The increase in the fall term school enrollment in the Lower Bucks County area including Bensalem township, Bristol township, Falls township, Middletown township, and Bristol and Tullytown boroughs will account for approximately 90% of the increase in enrollment in the entire county, according to Dr. Charles H. Boehm, County Superintendent of Schools.

A total enrollment of approximately 8,000 pupils for the Fall school term is expected within the four townships and two boroughs of Lower Bucks County by Dr. Boehm.

By January 1st enrollment is expected to increase to approximately 10,100 pupils with approximately 20% on part time schedules by that time.

In September, approximately 4,800 children will go into schools which are 100% outmoded in some districts, according to Boehm, who used the term "outmoded" to include over-age facilities, basement rooms, and generally inadequate facilities.

Boehm explained that consistently low assessment rates with resultant low revenues has created an overall picture of sub-standard facilities. And new delays, he continued, are being caused by boundary disputes and labor disputes such as the recent steel strike.

"The situation should improve every year," said Boehm, "for the next 10 years," after which time, he explained, "standard conditions" should prevail.

RICHBORO, Aug. 16 — Named as first winner in the 6th annual pasture contest, sponsored by Bucks Co. Production and Marketing Administration, is Lee Post, of near here.

Grant Weaver, of Tinticum, was judged as second winner in the contest. He uses the same mixtures as does Mr. Post and pastures 24 head of Holstein on 25 acres of pastureland.

The Haring Brothers, Blue School road, near Blooming Glen, won the third prize. They are undertaking an entire grass farm program and at present are pasturing 15 head of Brown Swiss on 30 acres of pasture.

YOU'RE ON THE LIST!

Imagine having a leaflet land in your back yard announcing that your town was on a preferred list of bombing targets. Imagine having your radio tell you that within the hour enemy planes will be overhead. Imagine having the enemy perform as promised. It would shake your faith in your defense and your military leaders.

This is happening all over North Korea. The United Nations has marked 78 cities and towns as bombing targets. The towns so notified were given a radio warning just before the raid, to give civilians an even break. Then the area was whipsawed with high explosive, napalm, machine guns, and cannon.

The significance of this bold move seems to be that the UN air command now has sufficient planes of all types on hand to carry out its strategic bombing program. It is also a challenge thrown right in the teeth of the Chinese air force to come up from behind its Yalu River sanctuary and do something about it.

The situation is reminiscent of the final days of the Third Reich and the Japanese Empire. In both cases the Allies called their shots, told the enemy exactly where it was going to hit from the air—sometimes when. In the case of Japan, a post-truce analysis of the fighting potential of the Japs in the final days before the A-bomb dropped at Hiroshima indicated that communications, transport, and ocean shipping were knocked flat. The psychological impact had been terrific.

It is doubtful that air blows alone will win the Korean war. There are almost limitless resources available over the Chinese borders which can be brought up to take the place of the war material destroyed. But the effect on the North Korean civilian population will be such as to make them cast a fishy eye on the propaganda they are being fed. And how about the military? Won't they wonder where their vaunted air force is hiding?

An entire week has passed in which there has been no speculation in print as to Ambassador O'Dwyer's plans come January.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Samuel Gaskell

A Practical Meditation
According to the law of averages, there will be some hundreds of people who will not survive this week-end. They are not sick; they will not die because nature has run its course. No, they will die because of their own foolishness and recklessness, or that of somebody else. The cause may be drinking, speed mania, or just plain carelessness. Tragically it may sound, somebody who has already planned a week-end trip, if those plans are carried out, will either not arrive at his destination, or not return home. If, instead, he would plan to spend one hour in the House of God, a great discovery would be made; the mind would be more at peace than it has been for many days.

show how futile have been the efforts of Communists either to "smash" or infiltrate Scouting.

"No man can serve the Boy Scouts of America as a leader of boys unless he has the endorsement of at least three men outstanding in his own community and the institution in which the chartered unit is to operate. In our selection we are most vigilant in making every possible assurance that men holding such positions of leadership are the highest grade American citizens. Every Scouter must take a pledge of loyalty to God and country."

"We have knowledge of certain attempts by Communists to secure positions of leadership either in a Scout Unit, a Council or in the Professional ranks, but we believe the thoroughness of our system of analysis of each application has resulted in our refusing membership or weeding out such men."

"It should also be stated that the Boy Scouts of America have consistently refused to participate in any youth organizations or Congresses in which Communistic organizations were a part, and we have consistently operated on the basis that our sole interest is to develop American boys in those traits of character and good citizenship that will contribute to strengthening of our democracy."

NEWS OF THE LEVITTOWN COMMUNITY

EARL WILSONS ARE PAINTING INTERIORS

'Dark Pewter' Living Room Will Contrast With Red and Black Furniture

SKULL-SHAPED MUGS

By Staff Reporter

LEVITTOWN, Aug. 16—In making visits to the homes in this new development that someday will have 16,000 houses, it has been interesting to note the unusual things that residents are doing with their homes. One can oftentimes find as many different things as there are people; then again some are traditional, hesitant about breaking away from uniformity. The Earl Wilsons, 22 Stonybrook Drive, are among those who are "individualistic."

This is the first home that the Wilsons have owned, and they are very proud of it. They want to make it one of the most attractive in the area, and plans that they now have in mind would indicate that their home will become one of the "showplaces" of Stonybrook. Wilson has had some courses in interior decoration at Trenton Junior College, Trenton, N. J. As part of some ceramic work he has had, he made two brown beer mugs which are shaped in the form of a skull. They present a rather bizarre appearance, but they are unique. He has also made modernistic lamps, which will be appropriate in the type of house these Levittowners are.

The major activity going on at No. 22, though, is the overall change in the interior of the house. All of the Levitt homes are finished with walls and ceilings colored a speckled grey, uniformly throughout the entire house. The Wilsons will have none of that. They want much more color splashed around, and that is Wilson's big project of the moment.

He is painting all of the walls and ceilings of the house, starting now with the living room and gradually extending, over a long period of time, to the other rooms. Mrs. Wilson calls the color for the living room "dark pewter." It's actually grey with touches of black throughout it. The walls and ceilings here will contrast vividly with the furnishings. Much of the covering for the furniture will be red while the wood on the furniture will be black. The entire scene should be quite modernistic with such use of colors.

Know Your Neighbor ---

A Series of Articles Introducing the New Residents of Levittown to The Community.

By Staff Reporter
LEVITTOWN, Aug. 16—A family that is really "roughing" it here is the Earl Wilson family, 22 Stonybrook Drive, because their furniture has not arrived yet.

Earl and Marian Wilson, who have a three-year-old son, David, had been living in Croydon for about a year before moving into their new home, but originally they are from Trenton, N. J.

Wilson has the unusual-sounding occupation of "coin-dimpler" at Kaiser Metal Products, Inc. For the benefit of the readers who are unfamiliar with the term, a coin-dimpler is a person who makes an impression in metal so that rivets are flush when they are put in. Coin-dimpling is a new process that is used in the manufacturing of certain types of aircraft, such as jets. Kaiser is one of the few plants in the nation to use it.

The Wilson home looks strange without furniture in it, but the family is expecting it all to arrive at once when a Trenton furniture company makes delivery. Meanwhile, they have been "pioneering" it with whatever available momentarily.

Mrs. Wilson enjoys music and poetry very much. She doesn't claim to be an authority in either; her emphasis is upon appreciation. Wilson is somewhat of an expert on interior decoration. He had courses in the field at Trenton Junior College, Trenton, N. J. Details of the results of his studies there can be found in the adjoining feature column.

Mrs. Wilson is looking forward to the arrival of the furniture and to the work involved in making the house attractively livable. This is the first real home they have ever had, and she expects to make the most of it.

CIOTTI'S SINGLE AIDS AUTO BOYS TO DEFEAT 3M

Steve Clotti's clean single to center in the last half of the seventh inning enabled the Auto Boys team to nose out Minnesota Minning, 8-7, last evening in a Bristol Softball League tilt on Memorial field. It was the third win of the week for Auto Boys and also their fifth straight triumph.

3M's had deadlocked the score in the top half of the frame by scoring twice. To start the second part of the inning, "Sugar" Sallustio blasted a hit to right. Bobby Trapp lined out a safe one to center. Sexton was walked to fill the bags. Loma's best was a fly to Joe Fandetta. But Clotti came through with his second hit of the fracas to score Sallustio with the deciding marker.

Nick Lomma who relieved Johnny Ciambella in the top of the final frame was given credit for the win with the loss going to George Wallace. Lomma did an excellent job of saving the game for Auto Boys. He replaced Ciambella with two runners on and no one out and retired the next three batters.

Tony Cauti had three beat-out bunts for the winners with Horace Saxton getting a double and single and scoring twice. Trapp also had a double and single and scored a run. Jim O'Brien led the scotch-tape makers with a pair of two-baggers.

YOUTH LEAGUE TO AID MIKE MURPHY

The Lower Bucks County Youth League will play its first all-star game tomorrow afternoon on Memorial field as a benefit game for the "Mike" Murphy Fund. The Bristol Boys Club, holders of first place in the circuit, will be opposed by an All-Star team picked by the managers of the loop. Game will begin at two o'clock.

Bob Coles, manager of the Bristol Boys Club, expects to send either Bob Rago or Jan Gouza to the mound.

The All-Stars will be managed by Vito Della and George McCay. The coaches will be Tom Adams, Harry Rhodes, and Frank Wolf. This game was originally scheduled to be played last Sunday but was called because of rain.

WHITE TO OPPOSE KOREYVA ON MOUND

It was announced last night that "Whizzer" White will oppose Stan Koreyva as mound opponent Wednesday night in the Bristol Softball League All-Star game on Memorial field. The All-Stars, picked by the managers, will play the 1951 champions, Fifth Ward.

White and Koreyva are two of the outstanding softball twirlers in Trenton. White played with Pacific Steel in the local circuit while Koreyva has been doing the throwing for Fifth Ward. Koreyva lost one game here during the season and was instrumental in bringing the season championship to the Warders.

Also selected as a hurler for the All-Stars was "Chick" Stansky, who was late in getting started this season but pitched some nice games for Kaiser Metal.

Manager Bill Cummins and his assistants will also pick several other hurlers for the All-Stars. The game will be played for the benefit of the "Mike" Murphy Fund with tickets being sold by officials and players of the league.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

SHRIMP come to market in a variety of forms nowadays. Whether you buy them fresh, canned or frozen, the little crustaceans provide many delicious dishes. This casserole version, suggested by A & P Service for Homemakers, is an economical but handsome main dish on anyone's table.

Put two tablespoons of vinegar, one and one-half teaspoons of salt and one-fourth teaspoon of black pepper into two cups of water and bring to a boil. Add one 12-ounce package of frozen vein-removed shrimp. Bring to a boil and cook for two minutes. Drain but save the liquid. Place the shrimp in a bowl of ice water for two minutes, then peel. Put the shells back in the liquid and simmer for ten minutes. Strain. Blend three-fourths teaspoon of dry mustard with three tablespoons of flour and stir in four tablespoons of melted butter. Blend thoroughly. Slowly add one and one-half cups of the liquid to the flour mixture and cook gently five minutes, stirring constantly. Add three-fourths cup of cooked peas, three-fourths cup of cooked white onions and the shrimp. Heat just to boiling and pour into a two-quart casserole. Cover with a biscuit topping made of one and one-half cups of prepared biscuit mix and two-thirds cup of milk. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for about 20 minutes or until biscuit topping is a golden brown. Serves four.

A crisp green salad makes a perfect companion piece for this all-in-one main dish.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

More On The Negro Vote

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.

Though this presidential campaign has not yet really begun to boil, it seems worth noting that some of our leading bleeding-heart publicists who for nearly twenty years have been writing lyrically about the so-called New Deal and Fair Deal policies, programs and ideals and labeling all who failed to join in the chorus as Republican reactionaries or worse, at last are beginning to recognize the facts.

For example, in the past ten days some of the most ardent left-wing writers have been almost frantically pointing out to their candidate, the pure but indecisive Mr. Stevenson, that it is not his policies, program or ideals which really count in this fight. What really counts, they tell him, is the Negro vote in twelve states—Maryland, Delaware, Illinois, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, California, Ohio, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Indiana and Connecticut. Regardless of what he does in the South no Democratic candidate, they point out, can possibly win without the bulk of these states, whose total electoral vote is 246 (266 is a majority) and whose total Negro vote is above 3,200,000. Further, it is stressed that without this Negro vote in Ohio, Illinois and California, Mr. Truman, despite his highly publicized whistle-stop tours and his cocky "give 'em hell" speeches would have been beaten in 1948. It can be equally sustained statistically that without the Negro vote Mr. Roosevelt would have been beaten in 1940 and 1944.

These facts have repeatedly been presented but never until recently admitted by Democratic leaders whose position was that the things that enchanted the Negroes were their great love of Mrs. Roosevelt and their belief in the alleged ideals of the New and Fair Deal. Now, not only the left-wing "liberals" but the hard-boiled big-city Democratic bosses have been making it plain that a good deal more than that is needed this time to hold the Negro vote in these twelve pivotal states. The milk-and-water civil-rights plank in the Republican platform, plus the nomination of the second-rate anti-FEPC Senator Sparkman, of Alabama, as Vice-President, plus Mr. Stevenson's statement that he thinks the states rather than the Federal Government should deal with this FEPC problem, have thrown Negro leaders all over the place into a resentful state of mind.

The left-wing writers and the Democratic politicians have to face the fact that the Democratic party is now dependent upon the Negro vote for success. Put the disaffected South aside, put the sore labor bosses aside, put aside the Democratic voters sickened by corruption, incompetency and waste—put aside all this, and the contention of the disturbed Democratic politicians is that they still can win with the 2,500,000 Federal jobholders (estimated by the Dunn Survey to be worth 10,000,000 votes) and the solid Negro support in the above-mentioned twelve states. But that support is complete indispensable. They may not win with it; they cannot win without it.

Democratic leaders—and particularly the left-wing publicists—do not publicly admit these facts, but they nevertheless know them to be true, as do all other politicians with access to the figures and ability to count above ten without taking off their shoes. Pressure on Mr. Stevenson to say or do something about this state of affairs is heavy and variegated. Some want him to make it clear, as did his friend Mr. Averell Harriman, that he favors full social as well as political and economic equality. But, of course, if he does that he will again stir resentment among white Democrats of the South, to soothe whom much pains have already been taken. Others want him merely to give personal assurances to such influential Negro leaders as Mr. Walter White and Representative Adam Powell that he is personally much stronger for what they want than either the platform or himself has said.

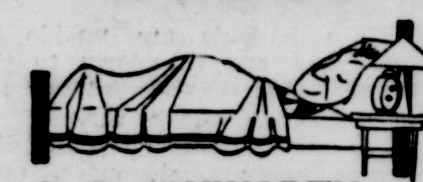

The trouble, of course, is that this would not be true. He said what he believes before his nomination, and it happens to be almost exactly what Mr. Eisenhower believes and said. For either to change his position under pressure would be clearly political and ignominious. That sort of thing in politics hurts a man more than it helps. As to the "private assurance" method, "private assurances" of that kind are easily detected, sure to become public and are then more injurious than anything else that could be done. Certainly it would be hard for either candidate to yield to pressure on this issue and still appear a man of courage and character. The pressure is greater on Mr. Stevenson than on Mr. Eisenhower because not only has the Negro vote become a basic and indispensable Democratic asset but in the pivotal states of the North, year by year, its growth has been rapidly increasing. The simple fact is that the Democratic party has become the captive of the two groups to which it made its big appeal—the labor unions and the Negroes. Some of its leaders fairly grovel to both.
